

Interior Angles

1. Interior angles- the angle between adjacent sides of a rectilinear figure.

2.

3. They are important because if we did not have interior angles then we could not make the thing we have now. If you want to see example look below.

4.

